Honorary Secretary

Peter Leathfead-Currie reported that the members would be kept informed by email of the developing situation and of the plans for re-opening. A winter Newsletter would be compiled and should be ready by early December. It will give notice of arrangements for a form of AGM at the end of January 2021.

Honorary Treasurer

M Lowe reporting for P Watson announced that the clubs finances were on target and the account balance stood at £65,101.98. The clubs accounts will be presented to our accountants on 4 November. He went on to outline the new restrictions, furlough scheme and the possibility of obtaining a local grant which would be based on rateable value. After some discussion it was decided that the Club Steward and bar person would be furloughed on 100% for the four week duration of the lockdown. The KP would be on 80% furlough. The Club Administrator would continue to work as normal. The chef will be available at the end of the period.
